

Little White House by The Cherry Tree

Use the Music of Little Brown Jug

Which is a well-known alcohol-drinking song, which may have been written by Joseph A. Winner (1837-1918). What is the origin of the song Little Brown Jug?

"Little Brown Jug" is a song written in 1869 by Joseph Eastburn Winner, originally published in Philadelphia with the author listed as Winner's middle name "Eastburn".

The following are the alternative healthy lyrics, changing it to a family song.

My wife and I lived happily.
In little white house by the cherry tree
Her and I had lots of fun
Singing the Pa-rum-pum-pum

CHORUS

*Ha-ha-ha you and me
Little white house by the cherry tree
Ha-ha-ha you and me
Little white house by the cherry tree*

Winter spring summer full
At our house we have a ball
See the leaves on the tree
Have a cherry with Alexis and me

CHORUS

And the fairy came to us
Sprinkling on us happy dust
You can come and sing with us
And see happy Alexis

CHORUS

It will be a joyful day
If you come to sing and play
You can sing in any key
It's OK with Alexis and me

Type of Work: Music

Registration Number / Date: TXu001144920 / 2003-10-17

Title: Little white house by the cherry tree.

Description: 1 p.

Notes: Song lyrics.

Copyright Claimant: Farid A. Chouery, 1951-, & Bernice J. F. Chouery, 1951-

Date of Creation: 1992

Names: Chouery, Farid A., 1951-
Chouery, Bernice J. F., 1951-